CONSECRATING A SERVANT

I want to remind and encourage you to be in worship on Sunday, April 29, when we will combine services for the purpose of ordaining Peggy Hindsman to the diaconate and installing the newly-elected slate of deacons who will take office on July 1. On the morning of the 29th we will have a moment when the entire congregation will have an opportunity to lay hands on Peggy and speak a word of encouragement and affirmation to her as she begins her diaconate service.

Of course, Peggy has served this congregation in many capacities over the course of her long participation in our church family, and she has ministered profoundly to many of us. Here is a chance for you to speak a word of gratitude to her for living a faith that has benefitted so many. You as a congregation elected her for this position of service. You as a congregation have the right and privilege to take part in her consecration to this servant office. I will invite the other incoming deacons to be the first to take part in this solemn moment of spiritual affirmation.

Next Sunday, April 22, will be Leigh Halverson's first official Sunday as our Minister to Families and Education. She is in the process of moving to Macon and settling in her new apartment. I know that you will want to give her a warm welcome.

As we look forward to the coming weeks, keep several dates and worship opportunities in mind. May 1 is our last Men's Fellowship of the spring. Our own talented bluegrass band will be providing our entertainment. Tickets will be on sale soon.

On Wednesday, May 9, our children's and youth choirs will be presenting their spring concert at 6:45 pm in the sanctuary. Honor their hard work and that of their leaders and accompanists by making a special effort to attend, even if you don't normally make Wednesday worship a priority.

On the following Wednesday, May 16, we will hold our first Mission Auction to benefit our Puerto Rico Mission Trip. I encourage you to make this special evening a priority, too. If you have items for auction, please let Jim Jones, Russell Honeycutt, or Angela know. We are trying to publish the list of items for auction as soon as possible. We plan to have both a silent and live auction that night. Should be fun!

Looking down the road a little farther, we will honor our graduating high school seniors on Sunday, May 20. This is always a special morning of worship and we will combine morning worship services on that Sunday, too.

Men, remember, Angela is looking for voices to participate in the men's choir for next Sunday, April 22. This men's choir will rehearse at the church next Saturday at 9:30 am. Let Angela know of your willingness to sing.

I confess to you that I have spent far more of my life in committee meetings than I had ever intended or imagined. Most of them were forgettable or inconsequential. But the committee meeting we examine today was probably the most important committee meeting in the history of Christianity. It was one of those meetings where most everyone entered it with their own particular agenda, and the champions of each perspective were sure that only they were right. But what emerged was a solution where no one received exactly what they wanted, but everyone agreed that it was the resolution the church needed to embrace to achieve their primary objective, the spread of God's Good News. Christians throughout the ages have been honoring and learning from the spirit exhibited by those early Christians in what has come to be known as "The Jerusalem Council."

A word from your pastor,
Dr. Richard Kremer

FLOWERS

The flowers in the sanctuary are given by Mollie Fincher in loving memory of her parents, Douglas Brice Fincher and Annie Laurie Fincher and brother, Doug Fincher, Jr.

SYMPATHY

We extend Christian sympathy to the following families:

Edna Dixon and her family in the death of her brother, Harold Carlisle.
Richard and Ann Purser in the death of Richard's brother, Stanley Purser.

YOUTH

Today: Youth choir will meet at 4:00 pm to rehearse, and then we will travel to Magnolia Manor to share and sing in their dining room at 5:00 pm. Youth will grab dinner together afterward, and youth can be picked up at 6:45 pm from the church.

Wednesday: This will be our last Wednesday session on prayer for a while as we explore our final segment, "Prayer is Action." How is God calling you to action through and in your prayer life? How are you applying what you learn and discover in prayer to your life? 6:30 pm, Youth room.

Next Sunday: Youth choir at 4:00 pm, dinner at 5:00 pm, and street/park clean-up and games on Oak Haven until 6:30 pm. We will be looking at some skits in youth choir!

El Sombrero: Youth, let's hangout at El Sombrero on Thursday, April 19th at 6:00 pm for dinner. We will meet at the Forsyth Road location near Kroger. Bring your own money please!
